Taking a practice test

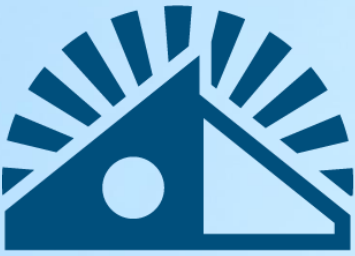

Tests have no time limit, and courses list how many questions you can get wrong and still pass.

- To answer questions, single click the circle next to a choice.
- Select Next Question to go to the next question.
- Your Progress is monitored to the left, including how many questions you have answered correctly/incorrectly.
- Green = correct answer
- Red = incorrect answer
- Light blue outline = question you are looking at but haven't answered yet.

- Hint = Select this to get a hint to help you with any question.
- View Handbook = Select this to go to the handbook that applies to the test you're currently taking.
- < All Tests = Select this to exit a test and see others. Your progress is remembered and you can resume from where you were by selecting the same test from the Car Tests, CDL Tests, or Motorcycle Tests tabs of the homepage.

The screenshot shows a driving test interface. On the left, there is a 'Your Progress' section with a grid of 40 questions. Questions 1-5 are green, 6 is red, and 7 is light blue. Below the grid, it shows '5 Correct' and '1 Incorrect', and '8 mistakes allowed to pass'. There are language options for English, Spanish, and Russian, and a 'View Handbook' button. The main area shows a road scene with a yellow diamond sign with two black arrows pointing in opposite directions. Below the scene, the question asks: 'This sign indicates that you are on a'. The options are: one-lane bridge, two-way road (selected with a green diamond), one-way road, and increase your speed. A hint is provided: 'This warning sign warns you that you are leaving a divided roadway and will be driving on a two-way roadway.' A 'Next question' button is at the bottom right.
