

XLR Microphone instructions

Plug an XLR cable (your own, or you can check one out from the Library) into this XLR microphone.

Plug the XLR microphone/cable combination into a compatible speaker (for live performances) or recorder.

Check the microphone to determine how close to your mouth you need to hold it. Check also for how loud you can sing before your level breaks the speakers.